Syllabus last updated on January 12

Notes:

1. As of the start of the semester, some aspects of this syllabus remain to be determined.
2. I reserve the right to revise this syllabus at any time during the semester.

The glory of God is man fully alive, but the life of man is the vision of God.

St. Irenaeus, Against Heresies IV

You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you.

St. Augustine, Confessions I

A synthesis of readings and themes introduced in prior core instruction, this course draws together fundamental questions considered throughout the curriculum dealing with such topics as revelation, history, transcendence, suffering, death, and salvation. The course orients life in the context of a Christian sacramental vision to the final end of the human person: the contemplation of the vision of God.

1.2 Journey

Guided by the riches of the Catholic intellectual and moral tradition, you will acquire the knowledge and skills needed to confront, formulate, and answer the question of what makes our lives, at bottom, unified and meaningful, and to see a Christian answer to that question as a serious and persuasive one. You also will learn how in the concrete sacramental and spiritual theology of the Church, such a meaningful life might realistically be pursued.

1.3 Destination

By the end of the semester, which is also near the end of your time as an undergraduate student at the University of St. Thomas, you will: 1. Be able to give an account of the contemplative end of man as fulfilled in the Body of Christ. 2. Show that you can accurately compare and contrast, in the light of divine revelation, the conception of the human person as contemplative with one in which the purely technical predominates. 3. Be able to give an account of the progression of the spiritual life as flowing from the sacraments and expressed in the liturgy of the Church. 4. Be able to articulate accurately the sacramental worldview of Christian theology and apply its consequences to their lives and the contemporary context.

I, Dr. Stephan, will consider anything short of this to be a failure – possibly mine but possibly yours. This must be a team effort.

To that end, we have a “Return to God Class Survey and Contract” in the “Start” page in Blackboard that everyone is required to complete and sign by the end of the first week.

Above all, note that you are expected:

1. To do all assigned readings and watch or listen to all assigned lectures every week.
 2. To be prepared for engaging full-group and small group discussions with your assigned Truth Troop Teams (study groups) at set intervals during the semester.

1.4 Required Materials

I have prepared a master .pdf document for this class called “The Return to God Reader” (abbreviated Reader). You are strictly required to do the following:

1. Print the Reader, preferably in a neatly bound manner, by the start of the second week of the semester.
2. Bring the printed Reader with you to class every day for the entire semester.

1.5 Recommended Materials

The required portions of the following items are included in the Reader. If you are someone who likes to hold a traditional book, then you might wish to purchase these separately. The Catholic Study Bible: Third Edition (#1) is particularly recommended, since it is a superb scholarly resource that one can use long past graduation.

 - ISBN 9780190267230

2. Saint Augustine: Confessions [Augustine's Confessions]
 - Translated by Henry Chadwick (Oxford World Classics)

1.6 Other Materials

I will distribute supplemental readings in Blackboard either as .pdf scans or via hyperlinks to online materials in the public domain.

1.7 Themes

The course is broadly divided into five thematic units that will last approximately three weeks apiece:

1. Creation
2. Fall
3. Christ
4. Liturgy
5. Eternity

This thematic sequence approximately aligns with the traditional Christian understanding of the unfolding of salvation history.

1.8 Grades

The total class grade is weighted out of 100 points.

1. Start of Term: (5%) READER PRINT & BIND
 - Having the Reader printed and bound by the start of the second week of the class earns 5% of the class grade in itself.
2. Start of Term: (2.5%) CLASS SURVEY AND CONTRACT
3. Semester Long: (20%) TRUTH TROOP TEAM TASKS
 - 5 study group tasks, 1 during each thematic unit, in which you demonstrate your collective understanding of the assigned material
4. Unit 1 (Creation): (15%) SHORT ANSWER TEST (Early Term Exam)
 - Timed test in which you will write short paragraphs synthesizing the material from Unit 1 into your own reasoned language, thinking of yourselves as ‘instructing the instructor’
5. Units 2 and 3 (Fall and Christ): (20%) PARTNER/GROUP DEBATE
 - Partner or small group ‘staged’ argument for and against one aspect of traditional Christian belief
 - Each pair or group will be required to provide critical feedback on 3 other pairs’ or groups’ projects
6. Unit 4 (Liturgy): (20%) TRADITIONAL LITURGY REFLECTION
 - Attend and write a critical reflection on an unfamiliar traditional Christian liturgy, drawing clearly upon lessons learned in the class
7. End of Term: (15%) CLASS ROUND-TABLE
 - During the last week of the semester, all students will be expected to attend 1 of 2 to 3 scheduled virtual round-table discussions about the class and share their sincere reflections about it.
8. End of Term: (2.5%) UST LEARNING OBJECTIVE ASSESSMENT QUIZ or DR. STEPHAN ASSESSMENT QUIZ (Details TBD)
 - Online assessment quiz required for University accreditation or short quiz prepared by Dr. Stephan to help assess the learning results of the class. As of the start of the semester, details are to be determined.

1.9 Schedule

You are expected to complete the assigned readings and lectures prior to the beginning of the marked class period. (For example, an assignment listed for Thursday, January 30 must be completed before arriving to class on that date.)

Items specially labeled “Optional” are recommended for all students but not, in fact, required. They variously serve as ready-to-go ‘backup’ tasks in case of unexpected changes to our class and supplemental materials to assist regular student learning.

All items not labeled “Optional” are required for all students.

Each instance of “Blackboard #” corresponds to a specific matching numbered module (folder) inside the “Readings & Lectures” tab in Blackboard.

Each instance of “Reader, ##-##” corresponds to my pagination in the bottom-right of each page in the Reader.

1.10 University Policies

1.10.1 Accommodations

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the University of St. Thomas will provide academic accommodations to ensure access for students with disabilities.

Students with disabilities who require accommodations for this class, must register with the Office of Access & Disability Services (ADS) and provide documentation of a disability to determine what accommodations are most appropriate. Please note that accommodations are not retroactive and disability accommodations are not provided until a Course Accessibility Letter has been provided to the instructor. For questions regarding academic accommodations and accessibility, please contact the Office of Access and Disability Services by email at ACCESS@STTHOM.EDU, or visit the ADS website at STTHOM.EDU/ACCESS.

1.10.2 Preparation

You must have the printed and bound Reader with you for every class period, starting on Tuesday, January 21.

1.10.3 Meetings

I encourage you to meet with me (Dr. Stephan) outside of the classroom, especially for guidance on the readings and assignments. Generally, appointments will be handled during my office hours (as listed at the beginning of this document).

1.10.4 Communication

You must use university email for electronic correspondence with me. I do not communicate digitally with students via any other means.

1.11 Other Class Policies

1.11.1 Late Submissions

I (Dr. Stephan) know that life happens, and I know that the best work sometimes has to be submitted late (the Sistine Chapel's painting went behind schedule, after all). At the same time, this class is a team effort, so we all must strive to have our work to share with each other on time. Even one 'weak link' can tear down everyone's experience; you (as an individual student) really do matter to the class as a whole.

With all that in mind, I have structured class assignments in such a way that there should not be any legitimate reason for anyone to make a late submission.

Most late submissions will incur a late penalty, and, occasionally, I will not be able to accept a late submission at all.

1.11.2 Statement on Software Freedom

I (Dr. Stephan) am a longtime advocate of Free Software as defined by the Free Software Foundation. I encourage you to teach yourself about software freedom. For my part, I promise that I will never require you to use non-free software – except class infrastructural tools that are currently required as part of our experience at the University of St. Thomas (e.g. Microsoft Teams and Blackboard) or otherwise of practical necessity for our work at hand. Whenever possible, I will encourage you to prepare your work in free software and submit it in formats with open standards.

1.12 Class Prayer

A Prayer by St. Thomas Aquinas

Grant, O Merciful God, that I may ardently desire, prudently examine, truthfully acknowledge, and perfectly accomplish what is pleasing to Thee for the praise and glory of Thy name. Amen.
